DEFENDANTS' JOINT ANSWER WITH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Defendants SHELDON SHAFFER TRUST DTD 3/26/1996 ("Trust Defendant"); ESTATE OF SHELDON SHAFFER; and DIANNE H. SHAFFER, in her capacity as Personal Representative of the Estate of Sheldon Shaffer and in her capacity as Successor Trustee of the Sheldon Shaffer Trust DTD 3/26/1996, (collectively, "Defendants"), by their undersigned attorneys, hereby respond to the Complaint, dated November 12, 2010, by Irving H. Picard, Trustee for the Liquidation of Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC ("Plaintiff") in the above captioned adversary proceeding (the "Complaint"), and respectfully allege as follows:

1. Paragraph 1 of the Complaint contains only legal conclusions or arguments to which no response is necessary. To the extent a response is required, Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 1 and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein, and respectfully refer all questions of law to the appropriate Court.

2. As to paragraph 2, deny that they received other people's money but admit that the Trust Defendant received certain funds from BLMIS since December 11, 2002. The remaining allegations of paragraph 2 are legal conclusions or arguments as to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 2 and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

3. Paragraph 3 of the Complaint contains only legal conclusions or arguments to which no response is necessary. To the extent a response is required, Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 3 and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein, and respectfully refer all questions of law to the appropriate Court.

4. Paragraph 4 of the Complaint contains only legal conclusions or arguments to which no response is necessary. To the extent a response is required, Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 4 and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein, and respectfully refer all questions of law to the appropriate Court.

5. Paragraph 5 of the Complaint contains only legal conclusions or arguments to which no response is necessary. To the extent a response is required, Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 5 of the Complaint and respectfully refer all questions of law to the appropriate Court.

6. Paragraph 6 of the Complaint contains only legal conclusions or arguments to which no response is necessary. To the extent a response is required, Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 6 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein, and respectfully refer all questions of law to the appropriate Court.

7. With regard to the allegations contained in paragraph 7 of the Complaint, Defendants admit that the Sheldon Shaffer Trust dtd 3/26/1996 was formed under the laws of the State of Florida; that it held an account at BLMIS in its name; and that Sheldon Shaffer was trustee for the trust until his death in February 2012. Defendants deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 7 of the Complaint.

8. With regard to the allegations contained in paragraph 8 of the Complaint, Defendants admit that Sheldon Shaffer maintained his residence in Hollywood, Florida until his death in February 2012. Defendants deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 8 of the Complaint.

BACKGROUND, THE TRUSTEE AND STANDING

9. Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 9 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

10. Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 10 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

11. Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 11 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

12. Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 12 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

13. Paragraph 13 of the Complaint contains legal conclusions or arguments to which no response is necessary. To the extent a response is required, Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 13 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein, and respectfully refer all questions of law to the appropriate Court.

14. Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 14 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

15. Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 15 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

16. Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 16 of the Complaint that the Trustee is in the process of marshalling BLMIS's assets, that the liquidation of BLMIS's assets is well underway, and that such assets will not be sufficient to reimburse the customer of BLMIS for the billions of dollars that they invested over the years. The remaining allegations contained in paragraph 16 of the Complaint are legal conclusions or arguments as to which no response is required and, to the extent a response is required, Defendants deny those allegations on information and belief.

17. Paragraph 17 of the Complaint contains only legal conclusions or arguments to which no response is necessary. To the extent a response is required, Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 17 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein, and respectfully refer all questions of law to the appropriate Court.

18. Paragraph 18 of the Complaint contains only legal conclusions or arguments to which no response is necessary. To the extent a response is required, Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 18 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein, and respectfully refer all questions of law to the appropriate Court.

19. Paragraph 19 of the Complaint contains legal conclusions or arguments to which no response is necessary. To the extent a response is required, Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 19 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein, and respectfully refer all questions of law to the appropriate Court.

THE FRAUDLENT PONZI SCHEME

20. Admit that BLMIS was a securities broker-dealer registered with the SEC and SIPC. However, Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 20 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

21. Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 21 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

22. Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 22 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

23. Admit that the Trust Defendant received monthly account statements from BLMIS. However, Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 23 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

24. Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 24 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

25. Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 25 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

26. Defendants deny that any monies sent to BLMIS were used to enrich the Defendants or that Defendants had any knowledge of the alleged Ponzi scheme, to the extent it existed. Further, Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 26 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

27. Paragraph 27 of the Complaint contains legal conclusions or arguments to which no response is necessary. To the extent a response is required, Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 27 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein, and respectfully refer all questions of law to the appropriate Court.

28. Admit that the Trust Defendant received certain transfers from BLMIS, but are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 28 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

29. Admit that the Trust Defendant received monthly account statements from BLMIS, but are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 29 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

30. Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 30 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

31. Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 31 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

32. Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 32 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

33. Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 33 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

34. Paragraph 34 of the Complaint contains only legal conclusions or arguments to which no response is necessary. To the extent a response is required, Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 34 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein, and respectfully refer all questions of law to the appropriate Court.

THE TRANSFERS

35. Admit that Defendants held accounts with BLMIS (the “Accounts”), and admit upon information and belief that they entered into certain account agreements including documents entitled: Customer Agreement; Option Agreement, and Trading Authorization Limited to Purchases and Sales of Securities and Options (collectively, the “Account Agreements”), but are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 35 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every remaining allegation contained therein.

36. Admit that Defendants contributed funds to the Accounts and made certain inter-account transfers to and from other BLMIS accounts. The remainder of paragraph 36 of the Complaint contains legal conclusions or arguments to which no response is necessary. To the extent a response is required, Defendants respectfully refer the appropriate Court to the Account Agreements for all matters of interpretation.

37. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 37 of the Complaint, except admit that the Trust Defendant received certain funds from BLMIS Securities during the six years prior to the Filing Date.

38. Paragraph 38 of the Complaint contains only legal conclusions or arguments to which no response is necessary. To the extent a response is required, Defendants admit that the Trust Defendant received certain funds from BLMIS Securities during the six years prior to the Filing Date and during the two years prior to the Filing Date, deny the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 38 of the Complaint, and respectfully refer all questions of law to the appropriate Court.

39. Admit that Sheldon Shaffer received certain funds from certain of the Defendants.

The remainder of paragraph 39 of the Complaint contains legal conclusions or arguments to which no response is necessary. To the extent a response is required, Defendants deny the allegations in paragraph 39 of the Complaint and specifically refer all questions of law to the appropriate Court.

40. Paragraph 40 of the Complaint contains only legal conclusions or arguments to which no response is necessary. To the extent a response is required, Defendants deny the allegations in paragraph 40 of the Complaint and respectfully refer all questions of law to the appropriate Court.

41. Defendants are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 41 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

42. Paragraph 42 of the Complaint contains no allegations of fact. As such, no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 42 of the Complaint.

CUSTOMER CLAIMS

43. Admit that a customer claim was filed and designated as Claim Number 005877 by the Trustee, but are without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 43 of the Complaint and on that basis deny each and every allegation contained therein.

44. Admit the allegations in paragraph 44 of the Complaint.

45. Admit the allegations in paragraph 45 of the Complaint.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

In identifying the defenses set forth below, Defendants do not relieve Plaintiff of proving under the appropriate standard of proof all elements of the claims that Plaintiff alleges. Defendants do not undertake any burdens that properly rest upon Plaintiff, and do not suggest either that Plaintiff does not bear the burden of proof as to such matters or that such matters are not elements that Plaintiff must establish in order to make out a prima facie case against Defendants. These defenses are set forth cumulatively and in the alternative.

Under prior decisions applicable to this adversary proceeding, all of the claims alleged in the Complaint are barred but for those claims asserted under sections 548(a)(1)(A) and 550(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. See Consent Order Granting Certification Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(b) for Entry of Final Judgment Dismissing Certain Claims and Actions. See Securities Inv. Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Secs. LLC (In re Madoff Secs.), No. 12-MC-0115 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y. April 27, 2012) (Docket No. 101). In the event that subsequent legal developments further alter the claims available to the Trustee, Defendants hereby raise each and every defense at law, in equity, or otherwise, available under any and all federal and state statutes, laws, rules, regulations or other creations, including common law. Defendants further adopt and incorporate by reference any and all other defenses asserted or to be asserted by any other defendant or party-in-interest to the extent that Defendants are similarly situated and may properly assert such defense.

Defendants reserve and assert all affirmative defenses available under applicable federal or state law, including Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, New York Debtor and Creditor Law, New York Civil Practice and Local Rules, and reserve the right to assert other defenses, cross-claims, and third party claims when and if they become appropriate in this action.

These defenses are set forth cumulatively and in the alternative.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

1. The Complaint violates Rules 8(a)(2) and 9(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 129 S. Ct. 1937 (2009), and Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544 (2007) by, inter alia, (a) failing to describe each specific transfer and its recipients, and each subsequent transfer and its recipients, and improperly combining allegations as to all Defendants, (b) pleading numerous background allegations and purported legal standards that are not required for the assertion of the alleged claims, and (c) pleading numerous factual allegations about which Defendants could not possibly have knowledge.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

2. This Court lacks jurisdiction over the final adjudication of the claims asserted in the Complaint under Stern v. Marshall, 131 S. Ct. 2594 (2011), and its progeny. The asserted claims are not core proceedings and Defendants do not consent to the entry of a final order and judgment by the Bankruptcy Court. Defendants further demand a trial by jury.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

3. The Complaint fails to state a claim on which relief can be granted because it fails to properly plead the elements required for the avoidance of BLMIS's obligations. Absent an action to avoid BLMIS's obligations to pay what is owed to the customer under state law, the transfers were all made on account of antecedent debts. To the extent the Trustee has pled the avoidance of obligations, he is not authorized under governing statutes to pursue such avoidance claims.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

4. The Complaint is barred, in whole and/or in part, because Plaintiff lacks standing and/or capacity to bring any claims against Defendants.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

5. The claims are not ripe because they do not meet the conditions of section 78fff-2(c)(3) of SIPA. The Trustee has not established that there is a shortfall in customer property.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

6. The Complaint is barred, in whole and/or in part, because BLMIS never had a legal interest in the allegedly transferred funds and/or any and all such funds were held by BLMIS in trust or as bailee, and therefore the allegedly transferred funds are not property of the estate.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

7. The Complaint is barred, in whole and/or in part, because Plaintiff has failed to plead all of the elements of fraudulent transfer under 11 U.S.C. §§ 548(a)(1)(A) and 548(a)(1)(B) with sufficient particularity and factual basis.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

8. The Complaint is barred, in whole and/or in part, because Plaintiff has failed to plead all of the elements of fraudulent transfer under 11 U.S.C. § 544 and New York Debtor and Creditor Law §§ 273, 274, 275, 276, 276-a, 278 and/or 279 with sufficient particularity and factual basis.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

9. The alleged transfers, to the extent they were actually received by any of Defendants, were taken without actual fraudulent intent and for fair consideration, as provided by section 278(2) of the New York Debtor and Creditor Law. They are thus not avoidable or recoverable as against these Defendants under sections 544 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code or sections 272 through 276 of the New York Debtor and Creditor Law.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

10. The alleged transfers, to the extent they were actually received by any of Defendants, were taken for fair consideration and without knowledge of the fraud, as provided by section 278(1) of the New York Debtor and Creditor Law. They are thus not avoidable or recoverable as against these Defendants under Sections 544 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code or sections 272 through 276 of the New York Debtor and Creditor Law.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

11. The Complaint is barred, in whole and/or in part, because any and all alleged transfers received by Defendants from BLMIS were taken for value, in good faith, as provided by Section 548(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, and without knowledge of any voidability of such transfers and/or knowledge of the transferor's alleged fraudulent intent.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

12. To the extent one or more of the transfers alleged in the Complaint were made, the Complaint is barred by 11 U.S.C. § 550 (b)(1) because Defendants took any such transfer for value, in good faith, and without knowledge of the voidability of the alleged transfers. Such transfers are thus not avoidable or recoverable as against these Defendants under sections 548 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code.

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

13. To the extent one or more of the transfers alleged in the Complaint were made, the Complaint is barred by 11 U.S.C. § 550 (b)(2) because Defendants were an immediate or mediate good faith transferee of a transferee who took any such transfer for value, in good faith, and without knowledge of the voidability of the alleged transfers.

FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

14. The alleged transfers are exempt from avoidance in whole or part under section 546(e) of the Bankruptcy Code because each of the transfers was made by or to a stockbroker and/or financial institution, in connection with a securities contract.

FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

15. The alleged transfers are exempt from avoidance in whole or part under section 546(e) of the Bankruptcy Code because each of the transfers constitutes a settlement payment made by or to a stockbroker and/or financial institution.

SIXTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

16. Plaintiff's Complaint is barred by the doctrine of forum non conveniens.

SEVENTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

17. The Complaint is barred, in whole and/or in part, based on the doctrines of laches and/or waiver.

EIGHTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

18. The claims are barred in whole or part by res judicata, collateral estoppel, and/or issue preclusion.

NINETEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

19. The Complaint is barred because the forum in which this action has been commenced cannot exercise in personam jurisdiction over Defendants.

TWENTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

20. The Complaint is barred with respect to claims under Section 544(b) of the Bankruptcy Code by the unclean hands of any creditor who held or holds matured or unmatured unsecured claims against BLMIS that were and are allowable under Section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code or that were and are not allowable only under Section 502(e).

TWENTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

21. The Complaint is barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of in pari delicto and/or the Wagoner rule because, among other things, the acts of its predecessors, agents and representatives (including Bernard L. Madoff and BLMIS) are imputed to Plaintiff.

TWENTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

22. The alleged transfers are not avoidable as against Defendants or recoverable from Defendants under the single satisfaction rule set forth in Section 550(d) of the Bankruptcy Code and/or under New York law.

TWENTY-THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

23. The Complaint is barred, in whole and/or in part, because the alleged transfers and/or Defendants' property are exempt from recovery by Plaintiff.

TWENTY-FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

24. The claims should be dismissed due to Defendant's justifiable reliance on the activities of governmental and regulatory bodies, such as the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation, to oversee and monitor BLMIS' activities.

TWENTY-FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

25. Each claim for recovery of a fraudulent transfer is subject to setoff or equitable adjustment because the Defendants received such transfer in good faith, without knowledge of the alleged fraud, and in payment of an antecedent debt, in whole or in part, on account of obligations owed by BLMIS for, inter alia, (a) amounts contractually due to customers under New York law for the balances shown on prior customer account statements and related documents; (b) rescission remedies, including damages and interest for fraud and misrepresentation pursuant to federal and state law; (c) the time value of money; (d) unjust enrichment; (e) damages for breach of fiduciary duty; and/or (f) money had and received.

TWENTY-SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

26. Each of the counts alleging a fraudulent transfer is subject to setoff or other equitable adjustment to the extent that such transfers were, in whole or in part, used to pay tax obligations imposed on so-called "fictitious profits" reported on, among other things, IRS Form 1099 and other information reported by BLMIS to the Internal Revenue Service, state and/or local governmental taxing authorities.

TWENTY-SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

27. Recovery of attorneys' fees from Defendants is not permissible under Sections 544 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code and Section 276-a of the New York Debtor and Creditor Law because such fees are not a "transfer" or "conveyance" under applicable law.

TWENTY-EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

28. The claims are barred in whole or part because they depend upon calculations that improperly attempt to avoid transfers that occurred prior to six years before the Filing Date.

TWENTY-NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

29. The claims are barred in whole or part because they depend upon calculations that improperly attempt to avoid transfers that occurred prior to two years before Filing Date.

THIRTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

30. The claims are barred in whole or part for failure to properly credit inter-account transfers.

THIRTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

31. The claims are barred in whole or part for failure to properly account for the time value of money through an interest adjustment to principal deposits.

THIRTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

32. The Complaint fails to state a claim on which relief can be granted because it fails to sufficiently trace the funds at issue from BLMIS to the individual Defendants.

THIRTY-THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

33. Even if the Trustee is entitled to the return of some or all of the transfers, he is not entitled to interest from the date of each alleged transfer.

THIRTY-FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

34. The claims are barred by intervening or superseding events, factors, occurrence, or conditions over which Defendants had no control.

THIRTY-FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

35. The claims are barred in whole or in part for failure to properly credit deposits made by Defendants into other accounts controlled or managed by BLMIS, including E & M trading accounts.

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Defendants demand a trial by jury for all issues so triable.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

Defendants expressly reserve the right to amend and/or supplement this Answer, its Affirmative Defenses, and all other pleadings. Defendants also reserve the right to assert all other defenses that may be revealed during the course of discovery or other investigation.

WHEREFORE, Defendants demand judgment against Plaintiff dismissing the Complaint with Prejudice, awarding Defendants' attorneys' fees and costs of suit, and such other relief as the Court deems just and appropriate.
